Providing Help, Creating Hope

As a supporting partner, you can help struggling women and children.

For 34 years, NCC has provided mental health services to low-income women and children.

- Since 1986, NCC has assisted over 15,000 people build a stronger life and future.
- Depression is the leading cause of disability in women.
- One in five children in Oregon live below the federal poverty line – that's nearly 200,000 kids.
- Half of all chronic mental illness begins by the age of 14.
- More older women need mental health services due to ongoing impacts of the Great Recession.

The Circle of Strength Virtual Fundraiser

Every fall a group of dedicated women gather to raise hope and money for the counseling needs of low-income mothers and their children. For everyone's safety and health, we are holding a live virtual fundraiser this year, with all proceeds assuring women and children receive quality and timely mental health services in a caring and compassionate environment.

The Center provides poor, uninsured, and underinsured women and children with:

- Individual and family counseling
- Affordable, integrated medication management
- Effective parenting and life skills
- School consultation
