

Mindfulness Mandala Virtual Workshop

Have you been struggling to practice your mindfulness regularly? Does finding a creative outlet in your life feel impossible? Are you overwhelmed by the concept of a meditation practice? Mindfulness, creativity and meditation all help manage depression and anxiety. You do not need to be an experienced artist to reap the benefits of art therapy. Art is therapeutic for all!

If you can make a dot you can make a dot Mandala and in the process of doing so engage in a mindful, meditation that incorporates creativity and a multitude of self-regulation skills.
